"Maria Guzmán Capron Builds Out A World Of Her Own In R/SF projects"
Jan 12, 2018 - Feb 04, 2018
R/SF projects, San Francisco

R/SF Projects in San Francisco recently opened a solo exhibition of textile, sculpture, and painted works by Berkeley-based artist Maria Guzmán Capron. The show is titled Desdoblé, which loosely translates to 'unfold.' The title references not only the many fabrics and textiles in Capron's show, but also the process of unraveling and uncovering the world that she has created within the gallery.
