Untitled, San Francisco Announces 2018 Exhibitors

November 14, 2017 by Zoë Van Straat

For the second edition, Untitled, Art will welcome 47 exhibitors from nine countries to San Francisco's Palace of Fine Arts. Untitled, San Francisco will run January 12-14, 2018.

Newcomers include David Zwirner who will present a curated selection of works by Colombian artist Oscar Murillo. Tina Kim Gallery will present a special presentation of Dansaekhwa artists, highlighting pioneers such as Park Seo Bo, Lee Ufan, and Chung Chang Sup. Eric Firestone Gallery will present a multi-tiered exhibition of figurative and abstract paintings and sculpture from the 1960s and early 1970s with works by Sidney Geist, Howard Kanovitz, Marcia Marcus, and Miriam Schapiro.

Untitled, San Francisco will also feature on-site curated presentations, installations, events and other programming created in partnership with Bay Area institutions and non-profit organizations including Artadia, Artists' Television Access (ATA), UC Berkeley Art Museum and Pacific Film Archives, CCA Wattis Institute for Contemporary Arts and Chinese Culture Center of San Francisco (CCC).
